

Our Faculty...

Dale Julian Bierce

Dale is the founding Director of The West Side Dance Center. She has been a dance and fitness professional for over 30 years. As many of her students, she began dancing at age 3 and spent 6 years in dance classes until she became a competitive gymnast. While attending college she returned to dance and was member of Kutztown University's Dance Company. As a dance instructor through the years she developed hip hop programs and taught Jazz and Tap in various area studios before opening WSDC. As a choreographer her dance groups won awards at regional competitions, and have performed in the International Dance Showcase at Walt Disney World; Magic Kingdom & EPCOT, Sea World, Cypress Gardens and the Norwegian Cruise Lines' Majesty-Stars At Sea. She has also choreographed for various theatre companies in the area. Dale is the Artistic Director of the NextStep Dance company, a pre-professional youth dance company focusing on giving back to the community and to those less fortunate by providing funding for charitable organizations through charity benefit performances. Dale has a BFA and was a graphic designer/art director for 20 years before opening WSDC.

Laurie LaSapio

Laurie LaSapio has been dancing since the age of three. At the age of eight she began competing and continued competing through high school. She received special awards in showmanship and top soloist honors. In 1991 she was on the USA Tap team that competed internationally. Miss Laurie has been teaching at WSDC since it opened in 2001 where she teaches dance to students ages 3 yrs – Adult. As a choreographer for WSDC's Performing Troupe, her dances have won numerous awards including judges recognition, choreography and overall awards at regional competitions. She has also choreographed for numerous plays as well as gymnastics teams. Miss Laurie continues her professional development in NYC.

Cyndy Voicechowski

Cyndy's passion and creativity for the performing arts is limitless. She is a professional dancer, choreographer, model, and entrepreneur. Cyndy has over 25 years of dance experience. She has performed at the NJ Prudential Center Arena as Captain for the NHL NJ Devils dance team, MISL NJ Ironmen dance team, and Director of Main Events Boxings dance team. Outside of the arena Cyndy has performed with Moldova's well known singer/songwriter "Dan Balan" as well as numerous performing artists around the country. She has also performed and choreographed for various television/commercial/industrial events throughout the tri-state area performing with "Sammy Hagar and the Cabo Wabos" to choreographing and performing for Latin artist "Talentino." Outside of dance, Cyndy's career has expanded to modeling and acting, being featured in Latina Magazine and Harley Davidson catalog; as well as lead actress for online web commercial, "The Lash" spiced rum. She continues to pursue her performance career while sharing her knowledge to the aspiring dancer, teaching all levels and ages of children.

Megan Perry

Megan is an energetic professional with over 10 years of experience as an instructor and choreographer. Megan has been a dancer since the age of 2 and has experience dancing at the competitive level winning many awards. As a young dancer Megan had the opportunity to dance with dance professionals such as Savion Glover, Frank Hatchett, David Howard, Rhapsody, Chio, Brian Friedman. Megan has a degree in Theater Arts with a concentration in management and dance. As a student, Megan created the Dance club, was a choreographer for student dance concerts and the theatre production of "Godspell". She worked with the Carolyn Dorfman Dance Company, the R2 Dance Company, and the Mark Morris Dance Company. After graduating she was an Adjunct professor teaching dance. In 2010 Megan started working at the West Side Dance Center and has loved every minute of it. West Side has given her the opportunity to choreograph at the competitive level and has become her second home. She appreciates the love and talent every student at West Side possesses.

Andrea Deventer

Andrea Deventer has been teaching and choreographing dance in NY/NJ for over 25 years. She has successfully developed modern dance programs at numerous studios in the area including WSDC where she has been teaching since 2001. She has been director of the dance program at Morristown Beard School in Morristown, NJ that she created in 1998. Andrea has performed professionally with several dance companies including Philadanco, Danny Sloan Dance Company, Paradigm Dance, Beyond Dance, Inc! and The Choreographers Collective. Her choreography has been shown at the Bickford Theater, Drew University, Monroe Street Movement Space in Hoboken, the Next Stage Dancespace in NYC as well as several other venues in the metropolitan area.

Adam DiLoreto

Born and raised in Canada, Adam began studying dance at the age of 13. He furthered his ballet training while working with the Oakville Ballet Company. At 18, Adam began working at Tokyo Disney, later transferring to Disneyland in California. He performed in numerous shows and was Dance Captain for the company in both the U.S. and Japan. After relocating to LA, Adam had the privilege of assisting Doug Caldwell, Malaya, Terri Best and Denise Leither. Adam later joined Rasta Thomas' Bad Boys of Dance performing in "Romeo & Juliet" throughout Europe. Adam finished his 8th season with The Radio City Christmas Spectacular, and worked on The Radio City New York Summer Spectacular where he was the dance assistant to choreographer/director Mia Michaels. Adam has worked along side of American Idol alumni Jon Peter Lewis performing in Deep Love at the New York Musical Festival. Since moving to New York, Adam has had the privilege of working with Broadway Choreographer Josh Rhodes, and Tony Award Winner Chris Gattelli, to name a few. He is currently choreographing pieces for the Australian production company Running Man, who has premiered at the Film Society of Lincoln Center. Adam is a Sponsored Athlete with Capezio and resides in New York City.

Eric Lehn

New York native Eric Lehn, received a BFA in Dance performance from Towson University in 2013. He also was a member of the National Honor Society for Dance Arts Advocates. Eric was fortunate enough to work with artists such as Linda-Denise Fisher-Harrell, Runqiao Du, Tim Veach and Vincent Thomas. He has had the privilege to perform works choreographed by Alvin Ailey, Robert Battle, Troy Powell, Kevin Lega Jeff and Frank Chaves. He has received training from the ABT Collegiate program, the Joffrey Ballet School and was a summer apprentice with River North Dance Chicago. Eric is currently a member of Rasta Thomas' Bad Boys of Dance.

Jeri LaBruna

Jeri LaBruna has been a ballet instructor at WSDC since it opened its doors and came with 10 years prior ballet teaching experience. Miss Jeri is a passionate, committed teacher and works with young aspiring dancers. She instills the love of dance in her students while giving them a strong technical foundation to bring with them into their other dance styles. Miss Jeri attended the Academy of Ballet in Oakland, NJ for 13 years. She was a member of the Festival Arts Dance Theatre company for three years.

Christina Paolucci

Christina Paolucci is a passionate and committed instructor of safe and properly executed classical ballet technique. She grew up in Boston, MA and trained at Boston Ballet School, performing with Boston Ballet while still in high school. After graduating from Juilliard with a BFA in dance, she joined New York Theatre Ballet, performing principal roles in the company's repertory. In addition to guest appearances with other companies, she performed in 49 states during her performing career. Christina was artistic associate of The Tallahassee Ballet and is the former Executive Director of New York Theatre Ballet. She has staged ballets, commissioned new choreography, and provided successful artistic and fundraising consultation to emerging dancers, dance companies and aspiring choreographers. She had a senior faculty position at Ballet School NY and currently lives in New Jersey. She is on the faculty of West Side Dance Center and is an Adjunct Professor of ballet at County College of Morris and Montclair State University. Christina's teaches master classes across the country and advises dancers to strive to be their best. She is certified in Progressing Ballet Technique and is a StretchSource™ Master Trainer.

Andrij Cybek

Andrij Cybek is an American by birth, Ukrainian by heritage and gypsy at heart. A graduate of the Virksi School of Academic Ukrainian Dance in Kyiv, Ukraine, and a long time student of Roma Pryma Bohachevsky, he is well known as a dancer, teacher and choreographer in various styles of contemporary and traditional dance. As a dancer, he has toured the country and the world with companies like AllNations, Michael Mao Dance, Nai-Ni Chen, the Duquesne University Tamburitzans, Barynya and, most recently, with the American, European and Corporate Event companies of Riverdance. He has been featured as a guest artist with the New Jersey Ballet, Northwest Florida Ballet, Montgomery Ballet, Mobile Ballet, Connecticut Ballet, Anglo-American Ballet, Brighton Ballet, and the Shore Ballet companies. Additionally, Andrij was featured in Indianapolis City Ballet's, "An Evening with the Stars". As a teacher, he has taught workshops in New York City, upstate New York, New Jersey, Texas, China, Aruba, Taiwan and Brazil. He is currently the Artistic Director for the Iskra Ukrainian Dance Ensemble and Academy in Whippany, New Jersey and the Tsvitka Ukrainian Dance Academy in Rockland County, NY.

Molly Bierce

Originally from Succasunna, NJ Molly started dancing at age 3 at WSDC until age 18. She trained in all genres of dance including Ballet, Jazz, Tap, Hip Hop, Lyrical, Modern & Contemporary. She began assisting in dance classes at age 14 and taught her own classes through high school while attending the Academy of Visual Performing Arts at the Morris County School of Technology. She was a member of the NHSDA, NHS, NTHS and the NJ Governors School of the Arts nominee. She danced competitively throughout her dance education and won numerous awards and scholarships. In college Molly was a dance captain on the top five nationally ranked University of Massachusetts' Dance Team where she was awarded 2 consecutive NDA D1 All American Dance Awards. She presently teaches dance at studios in the area and continues to train in NYC.

Natalia Ejova

Natalia Ejova was born in Obninsk, Russia. At the age of six, she began training in Rhythmic Gymnastics. Over the next twelve years, she rose to be one of the top competitors in all of Russia. After leaving gymnastic competition, Natalia turned her attention and energy to dance. She became a member of the top cabaret show in Russia, Alex Show, and then became a choreographer and dance captain. Natalia traveled throughout Europe to attend and train at various dance festivals, studying with some of the top teachers in the world including Mark Haim, Desmond Richardson, and Matt Mattox. Back in Moscow, she was hired by the Imperial Russian Ballet under Maya Plisetskaya and toured Russia and the world. She was awarded a scholarship to American Dance Festival where she continued her studying and performing in Durham, North Carolina. In the United States, she performed with companies such as Mornix, Complexions and with Nina Buisson. She also ventured into Folk and Character Dancing, performing with the ensemble Barynya. Natalia then toured with the North American and Irish tours of Riverdance. Currently, she is a freelance dancer and a teacher as well as a Rhythmic Gymnastics coach.

Alison Medina

Alison is a graduate of County College of Morris with an Associates Degree in Dance. She began dancing at the age of two. Through the years she concentrated on ballet, pointé, and contemporary. In college she studied modern, jazz, and the art of choreography. Alison has performed in various shows and participated in workshops; Morris County Teen Arts, American College Dance Festival Association, to name a few. Her choreography has been showcased in CCM productions, regional dance competitions and studio showcases. Alison is working towards a professional dance career.

Leah Suskind

Born and raised in Randolph, NJ, Leah started dancing at age 3 and presently attends Morris County School of Technology as a dance major in the Academy for Visual and Performing Arts (AVPA). Outside of school, Leah trains at the West Side Dance Center where she studies ballet, pointe, modern, contemporary, jazz, lyrical, musical theatre, tap and hip hop. She is a member of the WSDC Performing Troupe as well as a principal member of the NextStep Dance Company. During the summer of 2017, Leah attended the Juilliard Summer Dance Intensive, the Rockette Summer Intensive, and the RIOULT Summer Dance Intensive, and in 2016 she attended the Carolyn Dorfman Summer Intensive. Her performing opportunities include; Backstage is Onstage and May Dance annual concerts, World Voices in Motion at Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center and DanceNJ Show Up & Dance to name a few. Leah is a member of the NHSDA, NHS, NTHS and NJ Governors School of the Arts nominee.

Erick Rios

Erick Rios moved to New Jersey from Orlando Florida to be closer New York City in order to pursue his dance career. He trains all over NYC in many different styles of hip hop; from popping and locking to breakdancing and choreography. A big part of his dance training was with Project D dance company where he was a member from 2014 to 2017. During that time he performed and competed in Boston, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, and California. Erick has also performed at Raw Artist showcase in New York and Philadelphia. He has choreographed and showcased his work at Sybarite, performed in music videos and danced for various artists in New York and Florida. His strongest passion is in teaching others. As a teacher for the past 5 years and has taught all over NJ and NY, from kids to adults all levels. His goal is not just to teach dance moves but to challenge his students and push them beyond what they think their limit is and, in the process, have fun.

motivation.
versatility.
creativity.
compassion

The West Side Dance Center takes pride in a team of professionals that are dedicated to their art. These motivated instructors are versatile in their style. bring creativity to the studio and compassion to their students.

